Letter from the 100th Regiment.

BLAINS CROSS ROADS, TENN.,
Camp 100th Reg't., Pa. Vols.,
December 31st, 1863.

MR. EDITOR:—Grand military movement in the Department of the Ohio, have for the present, come to a stand still; and once more we are enjoying the dull monctony of camp life.—Two weeks ago, we thought Gen. Longstreet had some notion of giving us battle in this valley, but he acted on the adage, "Prudence is the better part of valor," and withdrew his forces from our front, and rumor now says, they are making their way over the smoky mountains, to North Carolia, thus giving up East Tennessee as lost to them forever. During our late Campaigns—never in the history of this war, have men endured the hardships and sufferings, that the army of the Ohio, has done. The majority of the men are almost destitute of clothing, many have marched for days, and performed duty in the camp and upon the battle-field without shoes, and have lived upon less than half rations, and often nothing ing but parched corn. Still not a murmer escaped the lips of those brave men, all were, "Gay and happy still." Each one knew that the Government not ceased to care for them, but that their privations depended upon the difficulty of getting the supplies to them and that there was no blame upon the Government. The soldiers of this Department, are not demoralized, and dissatisfied with the war, as many at home, would try to make the public believe. Instead of seeking for a chance to quit the service, old battle scared veterans, from the different States, are —— with each other, to see which will be first to again be mustered as "veterans," under the old flag, to fight till treason goes down to rise no more.

The 100th P. V. whose first term of enlistment, would have expired in eight months from to day, have as an organization re-enlisted almost to a man, for the peroriod of three years more. A thirty day's furlough will soon be granted to the regiment, permitting each one to visit his loved ones at home. Nearly all regiments in this Department that have served over two years, are following the example set by the Roundheads.—When men who have served as long, and and fought upon as many bloody fields, as of the 9th A. C. will again re-enlist, in the field, for three years more, is ample proof that the army is not tired of the war. Tis true, all desire peace—but that peace must be without compromise with traitors.—The step now taken by those old regiments, speak in thundering tones to Jeff. Davis, and his followers, that nothing short of submission and a return to their allegiance, or annihilation awaits them. The old soldiers who have been tried, and not found wanting, are not willing now to leave the field of glory, and silently, be looking on while traitors of the South, and their allies of the North, seek to trail in the dust the emblem of our nation, and scorn this Union. No, never, will they be found inactive.—But once again, they have rallied round their flag, and never will they put off their armor, till traitors lay down their arms, and peace once more reigns throughout our once happy land.

Yours Respectfully,
W. C. SHURLOCK,
Asst. Surg. 100th, Reg. P. V.

For the Argus.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you allow me a small space in your paper, to call attention to a subject in which every citizen, male and female is deeply interested. It cannot have escaped the notice of any observer, that intemperance is alarmingly upon the increase among us.

There was a time, when as a community we boasted of our immunity from glaring vices; when a man under the influence of strong drink was a varity — not so now. With stealthy, but none the less rapid advance, intemperance has grown to be a giant evil, threatening the prospects, and mining the happiness of many.—In a reflecting mind, this knowledge will awaken sad thoughts and gloomy apprehensions. The long catalogue of ills that follow its train naturally present themselves. The ruined bodies, blighted prospects and wrecked souls, the desolated homes, neglected interests, and poverty stricken, sorrow crushed families.

The object of this article is to call the attention of our citizens to this matter. Cannot something be done to stay the rushing tide. It is not too late. There are those who can be saved, if only the effort is made. The interests of humanity and of those dear to us demand it. Our sons and brothers are exposed to temptation every day. They may be safe to day, but unless we are round to their danger and a healthy public sentiment is stimulated, they may fall to-morrow. Will not some of our good citizens take the matter in hand and devise some means by which the evil may be reached. Good can and will be accomplished. Some who may have taken one backward step, may be induced to return, and others who are safe may be kept safe by a timely action.

CITIZEN.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

The following is a vivid discription of the horrors of a battle field. Our readers will recognize it as being from the pen of B. F. Taylor, a war correspondent for the western press.

"When a furnance is in blast, the red fountain sparkles plays like a mountian spring, and the rude surroundings brighten to the peak of the rough rafters with a strange beauty. When the fire is out, and the black and ragged masses of dull iron lie dead upon the ground, with a dumb and stubborn resistance, who would dream that they ever leaped with light?

A battle and a furnance are alike. It is wonderful how dull natures brighten and grow mostly in the glow of battle; how the smoldering worth and wealth that are in them shine out, and the common man stands transfigured, his heart in his hand, and his foot in the the realm of heroic grandeur.—But ah, when the fire is out, and the scarred earth is heaped with clay, the black mouths of the guns speechless, mighty hammers and no hands, the flags furled, the wild hurrah died away, and all the splendid action of the charge vanished from the rugged field like a last flash of sunshine, and you wander among the dull remainders, the dead [illegible] of the intensest life and glow [illegible] your soul out, only [illegible] it on with the skirmish line, you begin to know what those words mean, "after the battle."

It is days since great waves of gallant life dashed against Mission Ridge and swept up and over it in surges days since I tried to tell you how it all looked; so many days that it is even now indurating into history, and yet I feel like taking up the story just where I left it on Wednesday night at sunset, when our flag flopped like eagles' wings, and the wild cry of triumph quivered along the mountain. Standing on the edge of the field in the moonlight, calm as "God's acre," stretches the rough valley that, but an hour before, jarred with the rush and whirl of the battle. From away beyond the ridge, indeed, out to Chickamauga Station, the dropping shot from Sheridan's guns fairly punctuate the silence, but here, listen as you will, you can hear no sound but the click of ambulance wheels, slowly rattling in with their mangled burdens, no sigh, no groan, nothing but the sobbing lapse of the Tennessee. I can never tell you with what a warm heart I looked up and saw the Federal fire kindling like a new constellation upon Mission Ridge; they were as welcome as dawning day to eyes that have watched the night out. The old baleful glare from rebel camp and signal light was quenched with someting thicker than water, and Chattanooga was at peace.

It is strange that a battle almost always lies between two breadths of sleep; the dreamless slumber into which men fall upon its eve; the calm repose they sink into at its end.—Night fairly held its breath above the camps; the wing of silence was over them all. Then came Thursday morning, bright and beautiful. You go out to the field; you keep saying over and over, "after the battle—after the battle." Men prone upon their faces, in death's deep abasement; here one, his head pillowed upon his folded arms; there one, his cheek pressed upon a stone: as was Jacob's at Bethel: yonder one, his fingers stiffened round his musket. Now you pass where a butternut and a true blue have gone down together, the arm of the one flung over the other; where a young boy of fifteen lies face upward, both hands clasped over the heart.—The sun has touched the frost that whitened his hair, as if he had grown old in a night, and it hangs like tears fresh fallen upon his cheeks; where a Lieutenant grasps a bush, as if he died vainly feeling for a little hold upon earth and life, where a stained trail leads you to a shelter behind a rock, and there a dead Captain, who had crept away out of sight, and fallen asleep, where rebels and true hearts lie in short windrows, as if death had begun the harvest, and had wearied of the work.

And so, through the valley and up the ridge, in every attitude lie the unburied dead; lie just as they fell in the glow of the battle. And these faces are not as you think, hardly one distorted with any passion: almost all white and calm as Ben Adhem's dream of peace; many brightened with something like a smile; a few strangely beautful. Wounded ones that escaped the moonlight search have lain silently waiting for morning, without a murmer or complaint; glad they were alive; not grieved they are wounded, for "did we not take the ridge!" they say; thus did the old soldierly spirit of one flash up like an expiring candle, and go out right there on the field as he spoke; he died with the last words on his lips, and "went up higher."

I said something of taking the backward step and retracing the ground made classic by a thousand deeds of valor; it is a work beyond the narrow verge of a writer of letters, but while abandoning it so more ambitious, hands I cannot deny myself the privilege of recording two or three incidents, Col. Wiley, of the 41st Ohio fell terrible wounded at the first line of rifle pits, and Gen. Hazen rode up with the words, "I hope you are not badly wounded." "Do you think we'll make it?" asked the Colonel. "I do," was the reply. "That's enough," said the gallant officer, "I can stand this!" and there he lay bleeding and content, and the tide of battle rolled on.

A division General turned abruptly to me in the course of a desultory conversation, with, "If you write anything about Wednesday's affair, as you will, forget Col. Miller, of the 36th Illinois—one of the most gallant little fellows that ever drew a sword." I did not need that injunction, for Colonel Silas Miller rode through the storm to the summit of the Ridge at the head of his regiment like a veteran, inspiring his men till the little 36th was a phalanx of heroes. The Colonel used to be adjutant of types and lead a column, now and then; in the office of the Chicago Journal, and true to his old love, he headed a column at Mission Ridge. Col. Frank T. Sherman, of your city, who commanded Gen. Steedman's brigade, displayed a cool courage and clear judgment worthy the name and fame of Illinois. In truth, all the Colonels on that day were fit to be named with him of continental memory, "the old fashioned Colonel," who "galloped through the white infernal powder cloud."

Spots all along that rough and terrible mountain route are waiting some poet's breath to blossom with flowers immortal. Here, by this gray rock flag the soldier, one shoulder shatered like a piece of potters clay, and thus urged two comrades who halted to bear him to the rear.—"Don't stop for me—I'm of no account for God's sake push right up with the boys!" And on they went, and left him in his bloody vestments. Do ye talk of your royal purple of Tyrian dyes? Beside that hero lying there, those tints grow dull as gray November. Hard by that little oak, Colonel Harker, crowding up the hill, saw two brothers, one wounded unto death, the other bending over him.

The Colonel not seeing the fallen man, ordered the other to move on.—The poor stricken fellow on the ground ralied in an instant; "yes that's right, George; go on, go on." George turned a piteous look upon his dying brother grasped his musket and clambered on. And that was his last farewell, for, the summit reached, he hastened back, and there beside the little oak, the soldier lay in that sleep without a dream. Between the first and second ranges of rebel works right in the flesh of the charge, a captain fell, and two came to his aid. Don't wait here he said "go back to your company; one useless man is enough; don't make it three." Just then a cheer floated down the mountain as they took the rifle pit.

"Don't you hear, that!" he cried, "march," and away they went. Such incidents as these strew all the way from base happening in an instant, lost and forgotten in the whirlwind; worth, every one of them, of a place in loyal hearts. With such a spirit as the Alpine traveller breathed, whose burden, as he went, was still "excelsior," who can wonder that Mission Ridge was carried in a November afternoon? As I think of it all, I seem to have the poet's quickened ear, and to me, standing in the valley below, from hundreds of lips now white and still, a voice flows down the ridge, in grand accord:

"A voice comes like a falling star Excelsior!"

CONSCIENCE TROUBLED THEM.—An exchange paper says: A man in a certain village, with whom we are acquainted, having had sanded sugar sold to him, inserted in the weekly paper the following notice:

"I purchased of a grocery in this village a quantity of sugar, from which I obtained one pound of sand; and if the rascal who cheated me will send to my address seven pounds of goodsugar, (scripture measure,) I will be satisfied; if not I shall expose him."

On the following day, nine seven-pound packages of sugar were left at his residence from as many different dealers, each supposing himself to be the person intended.

☞ A distinguished clergyman being requested to open the services with prayer, but not having been invited to preach, declined, saying, that "as his friend was going to do the mowing, he might whit his own scythe."

Rebel Prison Described by a Rebel.

A correspondent of the Raleigh (N. C.) Standard gives the following account of the manner in which the military prison at Weldon is managed:—MR. EDITOR: I see some one makes a suggestion through your paper that an agent be appointed to visit military prisons and ascertain the condition and treatment of the prisoners (North Carolinians) there confined, and report the same to the Governor or Legislature, &c. This is certainly a most judicious, useful and appropriate suggestion, and I hope will at once receive the proper attention from the Legislature. Probably it is impracticable for the Legislature to make any law portaining to the discipline and treatment of Confederate troops just now, but it is only desired that the law making power of the State of North Carolina look into the treatment of her citizens, to the end that justice, proper redress, and the good of the service may be secured. This agent should be one who duly appreciates a wholesome and lawful exercise of discipline among our troops, and also one who knows the rights of private soldiers, and would, under all circumstances, do everything possible to give justice and a fair and speedy trial to all North Carolina prisoners. The Legislature should authorize this agent to ascertain and report on the cases of all prisoners thus confided in North Carolina, and of all North Carolinans confined elsewhere in the Confederacy.

Much of the duty of this agent would depend on the courtesy and discretion of Confederate military authorities. President Davis would, I think, readily order all the necessary facilities and privileges extended to this agent. It would be proper to continue him a year or more, as may be thought necessary. This measure is entirely practicable, and a more wise, humane, and necessary mission could hardly be provided by the Legislature. There are at this moment over one thousand citizens of the State confined within the limits of the State, under guard and without trial. Some of these men I know to have been thus confined nearly five months, and have never had any trial, and do not know the charges against them. Some of these prisoners are subjected to the most cruel and inhuman treatment by the military commander in charge of them. I am more familiar with the management of the military prison at Weldon, under charge of General M. W. Ransom. The military prison at Weldon is a log hut, sixteen by twenty feet. One small door is the only opening, and the cracks and chincks are stopped tight with clay, and there is a chimney at one end. In this place, forty and fifty persons of all classes and ages, are kept constantly. Very few have blankets, and not more than one or two have a change of clothes. All have to stand inside this hut the whole time.

From morning till night, and from night till morning, these men are crammed and packed together, in lice and filth, with neither room to sit or lie, and thus they have been for weeks and months. They are not allowed to get newspapers, to write letters, or have any communication whatever with the outside world. If they attempt to be so, the guard is ordered to shoot them. They are fed on half rations; that is, half of the rations given to troops in the field. These prisoners got one half pound of beef, or one fourth pound of bacon for two days, and from four to seven crackers a day. This is absolutley all they are allowed to have, and they are prohibited from buying or getting anything else to eat whatever. The beef furnished them is sometimes rotten carron, and very often the crackers are full of worms, cobwebs, and mouldy. Many of these men are starving and becoming weak and lean from continual hunger. They often eat up the morsel allowed them at one time, and do without for two days—till next draw day.

The guard are subject to severe penalties if they allow the prisoners a mouthful to eat, except what is drawn from the Commissary. These prisoners are not allowed to wash themselves or their clothes, or get their clothes washed. They are not allowed to speak to any person outside under any circumstances, unless a permit be given by the Provost Marshal to visit the guardhouse. Very few are allowed to visit the prisoners—hardly even the counsel employed in their case. While on their way to the court-martial room in Weldon, they must not speak to their witness or friend, on penality of being bayonetted or shot down on the spot. They are not allowed to vote at the State elections, and are made to do all species of labor continually—to clean around the streets and hotels of Weldon; to build and clean out the quarter and rooms of officers; to make their fires and cut their wood, &c.

Some of these men are very sick, and on requesting an employee in the Provost office for a doctor, were informed that they might "die and go to hell." This same employee a vulgar renegade Marylander—took all the letters for the prisoners from the post office and open them, and detained them also, if he thought proper, with or without orders. When his conduct was brought to the attention of the Post office Department, the commander of the post comes in and screens him from merited punishment. None of these letters thus opened were for traitors or alien enemies.—The money of the prisoners is taken from them, and they are not allowed to have any writing implements, as is alleged, because "things have been written to Governor Vance, Holden, and others."

Citizens, deserters Yankees are all huddled together; even negro prisoners have been sent in, but the prisoners unanimously determined not to submit to such amalgamation, and the guard allowed the negroes to stay outside. No pots, vessels, or conveniences are allowed. The prisoners is not allowed to go or send to the Provost Marshal or commanding officer to see about his case. Some of these men have recently been tried by Court Martial, but their sentences are not ordered nor promulgated yet. Nearly all these men are North Carolinians, and some of them are innocent of any crime, and many of them are as good soldiers as the army contains, and deserve but little punishment.—These facts can be proven by a hundred witnesses. These prisoners style themselves the "Reserve Battalion," and the name given the prison is "For Ransom." The guard is generally kind."

"A STOPPER."—A renowned clergyman of Lincolnshire lately peached a long sermon from the text, "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." After the congregation had listened about an hour some began to get weary and went out, others soon followed greatly to the annoyance of the minister. Another person stopped and said:—

"That's right, gentlemen; as fast as you are weighed passed out."

He continued his sermon at some length after this but no one disturbed him by leaving.

☞ Talk to women as much as you can. This is the best school. This is the way to gain fluency. They will rally you on many points, and, as they are women, you will not be offended. Nothing is of so much importance, and of so much use to a young man entering life, as to be well criticized by women. It is impossibly to get rid of those bad habits which we pick up in boyhood without this supervision. Unfortunately, you may have no sisters. Never be offended if a woman rally you out in courage her. Otherwise you will never be free from your awkwardness, or little odd tices, and certainly never learn to dress.

☞ A curious case has occurred in London, showing the rapid course of criminal procedure in some instances. A man committed a murder—killed a woman with whom he was living on Sunday, was arrested on Monday, the inquest was held on Tuesday, he was indicted on Wednesday, brought to trial on Thursday, pleaded guilty and sentenced, before the body of his victim had been burried. In the old times of Tyburn tree he would have rode on his coffin from Newgate on Friday morning, and been hanged before a week.

☞ Sombody who knows, says when two or more women, approaching you on a narrow walk, fall behind each other to enable you to pass, you may be sure they are ladies of uncommon politeness and consideration. The usual course pursued by women is to charge along all abreast, sweeping everybody into the mud.

☞ I have a brother—a wee little chap—who somtimes says things we think very odd. One day, as he was disposing of some bread and milk he turned around to his mother and said, "O, mother, I'm full of glory. There was a sunbeam on my spoon, and I swallowed it."

☞ Pass not judgment on thy fellow till thou hast been in the same predicament; say not of matters that are incomprehensible; that thou canst comprehend them; neither say when I shall have leisure I will study, lest thou may never have it.

☞ The number of political journals in paris and the departments at present is three hundred and eighteen; of unpolitical, six thousand seven hundred.

☞ The young prodigal, the Prince of Wales, has just built a private theatre for his wife and her friends to amuse themselves in.

☞ In Great Brittain they distinguised a nobleman by the star on his breast; in this country we distinguish a policeman in the same way.

☞ The day is short; the labor is great; the workmen are lazy; the pay is much; and the master of the house is urgent.

☞ To the great and patient scholar, reputation comes silently, like a fairy through the key-hole of his study.

☞ There is no doubt that the noisiest and most troublesome animal in Noah's ark was Mrs. Shem's baby.

☞ The sleep of the morning, the wine of noon, and the company of the evil, destroy mankind.

For President in 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice President,

ANDREW G. CURTIN

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

☞ We call attention to the order of Maj. Gen. Hancock, published in our paper of this week.

Gov Packer and the Pennsylvania Senate

The last number of the Star contains an article from the pen of Ex-Governor Packer, on the organization of the Pennsylvania Senate, which it publishes in justification of the unwarented and disloyal conduct of the Democratic Senators. We were somewhat surprised that Gov. Packer should be referred to, or his opinion, quoted as authority for anything by members even of his own party. A third rate county court lawyer, who accidently become Governor without ability, intelligence, independence or in fact, without any quality that should inspire respect, attempting to enlighten the Senate, and the people of the Commonwealth on a question of law and order, is simply preposterous.

It is a sufficient answer to his article to say, that the Attorney-General of the United States, who is as much the superior of Ex-Governor Packer, as it is possible for one lawyer to surpass another, has given an opinion just the opposite of that given by the Governor. The opinion of Governor Packer, his justification of the Democratic Senators, in their conduct convinces us that he is either blinded by prejudice, or at heart, disloyal. A Senator while in the field serving his country, is captured and retained in close custody; in the meantime the Senate meets, the political parties are a tie, and notwithstanding the fact that the Union party should be entitled to the organization by reason of the majority, and also because their party carried the State, at the late election by a large majority. Yet the organization is contested, weeks are consumed in useless strife, urgent legislative business is neglected, and the treasury depleted. Who is responsible for this useless waste of time and money? The Democratic party through their representatives. Who can doubt that the Democratic Senators are in secret league and sympathy with Jeff. Davis and his Government else why we ask does he refuse to exchange Major White, for rebel officer of his own rank, or even one of higher grade. A Brigadier General, and a great favorite with Davis has been offered in exchange, and yet it cannot be effected. Why is this?—There is not a single federal officer exclusive of Major White, but what can be exchanged for a rebel officer of equal rank, why then is Major White, an exception? The only reason that can be given is, that the Democratic Senators have notified Davis, to retain him; and he is acting to their orders. And yet well knowing all this, the delay and expense to the State in waiting until a special election is held, the treason of Senators holding communication with, and acting in conjunction with the President of rebellion for his interests and the interests of his cause; we have an Ex-Governor of this great loyal Commonwealth, saying that he heartily approves of the conduct of these disloyal treason-loving Senators. Yet loyal men of the Commonwealth hide their faces for very shame.

A Notice to Justices of the Peace

Justices are hereby notified that the law requires the returns of all criminal cases to be filed at least ten days before Court. Therefore this requirement has been totally neglected by many of the Justices of the county, some of whom did not make their returns until the first day of the Court. The District Attorney is presumed to know nothing of the case until these returns are made, consequently he cannot without great inconvenience prepare the case for trial, when returned at so late a date.—Therefore it is hoped Justices will be more prompt, should any cases occur after making returns, before Court they may be returned and in many cases should be to the first Court.—Justices not having control of such cases of course are unsurable; Justices are respectfully requested to inform prosecutors that it is their duty to call upon the District Attorney before Court. State their case and obtain subpoenas for their witnesses. Much inconveinces arrise from a want of compliance with this requirement. The March term begins on the first Monday of March.

J. S RUPAN,
Distr[illegible] Attorney.

The Death of Slavery.

It must now be apparent to every intelligent man in this Republic, that slavery which has so long cursed and disgraced our boasted land of Freedom, is about to expire. This most desirable object has been accomplished by the slaveholding aristocracy of the South, by their wicked and infernal conspiracy to overthrow the Government of the United States—to break up the Union and destroy the Constitution. We find that in Maryland the slaveholders have given it up; they find the effort to retain their chattles in the bonds of perpetual servitude a fruitless and loosing business. In that State it has been a long time exhausting her soil, retarding her onward progress, ir wealth and prosperity; it has diminished her population whilst the free States around her have been rapidly growing in all the elements of power and prosperity; but all this availed nothing until the war, brought on by themselves, produced a different state of the case. It has now become a burden to the slaveholders themselves, and will now make short work of it without any further action on the part of the Government at Washington. It cannot live out the present year; the institution is doomed.

Although Delaware has not been permitted, formerly, to secede with her slaveholding sisters, and is therefore not embraced in the President's Emancipation Proclamation, yet she too, will shortly take her place amongst the free States of the Union, notwithstanding the mighty and persistent effort of her Bayard's and Saulsberry's to retain it.

West Virginia has substantially freed herself from the dreadful and blighting curse. In 1860, before the war begun, she had but a few thousand slaves; but now she has practically none. To the rebellion, brought on by the Southern Slaveholders, she unquestionably owes her happy deliverance.

There were some portions of Old Virginia that remained loyal, and were consequently exempted from the operations of the Emancipation Proclamation; but God, who in his Providence designs the final overthrow of this great curse, has issued his Proclamation, which covers every inch of slave teritory, has doomed it even there,for in these counties which were exempted by the President, there is scarcely a single slave, and the loyal Legislature of the Old State has called a Convention to sweep from the entire State the last vestage of it away. This, too, is the work of her loyal and patriotic people, without the aid or control of the General Government.

Missouri has two parties hotly and zealously contending in relation to slavery—not for or against the institution, but one party is for its immediate destruction, the other for giving it a few years of grace—that is let it die an easy death. The next ten years will close it forever.

Arkansas has resolved that slavery shall no longer exist upon her soil, and is now coming back into the Union from which she was forced by traitors, a loyal and free State. She has come heartily, having become sick of slavery and secession.

Tennessee will soon be re-organized as a free State under the amnesty proclamation. Her intelligent and energetic people have had quite enough of the peculiar institution.

The Unionists of Louisiana have repudiated slavery, and are now preparing for peace and to Union on the basis of Freedom. They hold an election for Delegates in about a month. The doctrines of freedom are openly proclaimed and advocated.

In a considerable portion of Mississippi, as well as on the Sea Island's of South Carolina and Georgia, slavery has quietly and gradually given place to free labor, to the advantage and satisfaction of all parties. The principles of freedom are constantly gaining ground. Now, in view of all these facts, which are clearly and well established, we would ask all truly loyal and intelligent men of all parties, whether the "Union as it was" can ever be restored to life, and what would be the cost of that restoration. States which have or are about to count the cost of the curse of slavery, can never be replanted with it It is simply absurd to think of that which is entirely impracticable.

The stern shock of battles, brought on by rebels, has done its work well so far, and it is to be hoped that it will continue to work until the last vestage of that great evil is wiped from our continent forever.

CAMP 140TH REG'T. VA.,
January 14th, 1864.

MR. EDITOR:—During a furlough of ten days which I was so fortunate as to obtain in order to visit my friends in Beaver county. I was often pained by hearing such remarks as the following. "Why does not the Army of the Potomac move?" "What good are you doing?" "It is time the Army of the Potomac was disbanded or sent to some other place; for they have never accomplished anything," with many other such remarks; at the same time drawing a comparison by no means flattering between the Army of the Cumberland and the Army of the Potomac

I beg leave through your columns to reply to these questions, insinuations and taunts.

In the first place, why the Army of the Potomac does not move. It must be apparent to every man who is in the habit of thinking that no army can move during the inclement season of winter or even late in autumn without endangering its artillery and wagon trains. Especially in a soil like that of Virginia, where a heavy rain in autumn and the beginning of winter; renders the roads impassible; and if the army advances, a retreat is necessary to prevent starvation on account of the supply trains being unable to come up with the troops.

It is true that during the winter the ground freezes solid so that artillery supply and ammunition trains can be transported on the frozen ground; but a days thaw will let them all down in the mire in helpless condition, as Gen. Burnside's mud march can testify. To say nothing of the suffering of the troops in the bivouac in the open air. No one that has ever witnessed a winter campaign can form any idea of its horrors; during the recent march and countermarch to Mile Run, the pickets on both our own and the enemies side, were frozen to death. No record appears of the suffering of those who were nearly frozen to death and yet recovered we who felt and realized it alone can know it. We only can truly tell why the army of the Potomac don't move. We realized, too horribly realize that there is two seasons, one for campaigning and one for rest, and well we know the penalty for attempting to campaign in winter.

But they ask what good are you doing? We are defending the nations capital, as well as preventing the enemy from making raids on Maryland and Pennsylvania. We protect these very croakers in their rights to property, and are a shield to them in their pursuits of gain, and while they are at home enjoying all the sweets of peace, scarcely knowing that we are engaged in a terrible and devastating war, throwing out taunts, and insinuations right and left at their gurdians, we remain a living bulwark between them and danger

Withdraw the Army of the Potomac and the sturdy Burgess of York will be compelled to take another seven miles ride in order to surrender the place to the rebels. Harrisburg will again be cleared of public records and public men; Pittsburg will have to turn out her populace to fortify Coal Hill, and her surroundings.—Even Beaver may conclude to go into the fortifying business, and her brave home guards put her in as trim and martial a condition as she was when formerly in the cognomen of Fort M'Intosh.

Twice has the Army of the Potomac saved Maryland and Pennsylvania by copious libations of its own best blood. Or Antietam sanguinary field the old reserves pourd out their blood like water; and it was only by the most obstinate and determined bravery that the enemy was repulsed and the nation saved. And is there a class of people so lost to gratitude that they can only reply the soldier with taunting language and sneers. Alas that it should be so!

No army in the United States since its organization has done more severe marching than that of the Potomac, and no more bloody fields than Bull run, Nos. 1 and 2. Antietam, Fredericksburg and Gettysburg are on record in the Rebellions history.

The army of the Potomac mached from near Fredericksburg to Gettysburg, stopped the rebels in their work of spilinge and destruction, saved Pennsylvania a second time from being overrun by southern raggamuffins mishamed chivalry, drove them back into Virginia where they still remain, the guardians of Washington, and the protection of the middle States against a hostile and embittered foe It is too true, that on many a well fought field this army has been beaten, but Gettysburg will ever remain a testimonial of their success, and Antietam and Fredericksburg, of their obstinate and stubborn valor. As to the miserable comparison the croakers choose to make between the Army of the Potomac and the Army of the Cumberland; I am inclined to pass it by, well knowing that any such comparison are only calculated to foster ill will between the soldiers of the different armies. I will only make a single remark to show how ill founded are their conclusions. The Eleventh and Twelfth Corps of this army during last September, joined the army of the Cumberland. They afterwards were in the battle that succeeded that of Chikamauga, were highly commended for their bravery and coolness during action; while the Eleventh Corps served in the Army of the Potomac, we only know of its being distingush for the nimble manner in which it made for the rear at Gettysburg, but it goes to the west, and presto, it turns up the hero of the fight. I only mention this by way of remark for whenever you find an American soldier, let him be federal or rebel, there you will find a brave man.

And now permit me to say a word to the croakers. I have no doubt you want the war brought to a close, and this outlay of treasure stopped, if not this effusion of blood; well if you will only turn out and volunteer to the amount of 75,000, the Army of the Potomac can move. The rebellion can be crushed, and the Army of the Potomac can be disbanded. Do not wait to be drafted, and after that to procure a substitute, but come yourselves, and when you are here and have a heavy knapsack, eleven days rations, sixty-four rounds of ammunition and your musket to carry, and the roads knee deep with mud you will know why the Army of the Potomac don't move.

Respectfully Yours.
SECOND CORPS.

Governor Curtin's Inaugural.

The position which Governor Curtin holds before the country is by no means a doubtful one. Taking the helm of our Commonwealth at a most important era he has so discharged his arduous duties as to gain the applause of all friends of the Government, while his acts have reflected the highest credit on our State.

The address, delivered on the occasion of his re-inauguration, will well beare a careful perusal. It is a well-written document, yet through all its elaboration gleams the soul-light of Pennsylvan ia' patriotic Governor. Such words as the following should be engraved on every loyal heart:

For the preservation of our National life, all things should be subordinated. It is the first, highest, noblest duty of the citizen—it is his protection in person, property, and all civil and religious privileges, and for its perpetuity in form and power, he ows all his efforts his influence, his means, and his life. To compromise, with treason, would be but to give it renewed existence, and enable it again to plunge us into another causeless war.

In the destruction of military power of the rebellion is alone the hope of peace; for while armed rebels march over the soil of any State, no real freedom can prvail, and no Governmental authority, consistent with the genius of our free institutions, can properly operate.

The people of every State are entitled under the Constitution to protection of the Government, and to give that protection fully and fairly, rebellion must be disarmed and trodden in the dust. By these means, and these alone, can we have enduring union, prosperity and peace. By these means, and these alone, can we have enduring union, prosperity and peace. As, in the part, I will in the future, in faithful obedience to the oath I have taken, spare no means, withold no power which can strengthen the Government in this conflict. To the measure of the citizens, chosen to administer the National Government, adopted to promote our cause, I will give my cordial approval and earnest co-operation. It is the cause of constitutional liberty and law.

Testimonial to Gov. Curtin

A large number of the prominent Union men of New Jersey have signified their admiration and respect for our patriotic Governor by presenting him a handsome testimonial. It consists of the complete works of Audubon, the great naturalist—viz: The Birds and the Quadrupeds of North American, (three large folio volumes of colored plates, and eight quarto volumes of text,) superbly bound in full crimson Russia, extra gilt. On each volume, in letters of gold is inscription, "From the Loyal Citizens of New Jersey to his Excellency, Andrew G. Curtin, the Loyal Governor of Pennsylvania." Within, there is the following presentation address:

To his Excellency, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the State of Pennsylvania:

"The indersigned, loyal citizens of the State of New Jersey, in token of their appreciation of the distinguished service rendered by your Excellency to the National Government, during your late administration, and the able manner in which you defended the policy adopted for its perservation and perpetuity, during the re election, coupled with your untiring devotion to the soldiers in the field, and kind care of those in hospitals, in your own State, respectfully tender the accompanying testimonial:

"Audubon's Great National Work. The Birds and Quadrupeds of North America," on this day of your second inauguration as Executive of Pennsylvania, January 19, 1862, We have the honor to be, very respectfully your friends" To this is appended the signatures of the gentlemen from who this beautiful present comes fifty-six in all—being the number of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The entire cost of the gift is five hundred dollars. In other States, not less than in Pennsylvania, Gov. Curtin is held in the highest esteem by true loyalists.

MURDER IN MERCER COUNTY.—On Tuesday morning last the wife of Dennis Maloney, in Mercer, Pa. was found laying dead on the road about forty rods from his house, in Salem township. Dr. William H. Axtoll, Coroner of the county, summoned a jury after hearing the testimony in the case, returned a verdict that she came to her death by the hands of her husband. He was committed to jail on Tuesday to stand his trial. The Whig says: We have learned the fact and circumstances of the case, but we believe it to be highly improper to publish them at the present.

Second Army Corps.

HEADQUARTERS RECRUITING SERVICE,
Second Corps,
Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 15, 1864.

Authority having been given me to recruit the 2d Corps to fifty thousand (50,000) men for such special service, under my command, as may be designated by the War Department, I appeal to the citizens of Pennsylvania to aid me in filling up the regiments and batteries of my command which owe their origin to the State. They are as follows:

81st. 140th. 116th, (battalion,) 148th, 53d, 145th, 71st, 72d, 69th and 106th Regiments of Infantry, and Batteries E, G, 1st Penn'a. Artillery, and C. and F, Independent Penn'a. Artillery.

Until the 1st of March next, the following bounties will be paid by the General Government:

For Veterans, $102; for others, $302.

All volunteers enlisted for this organization will be credited to the city, county, town, township or ward which they may elect as the place to which they desire the credit given.

When no such election is made the enlisting officer will give credit to the place of enlistment.

Each locality is therefore interested in increasing the number of enlistments to the extent of its quota in the draft, and any stimulus given by local bounties or other efforts will have the effect of preventing those who desire to volunteer, from leaving the places of their residence and enlisting elsewhere, where the inducements offered may be greater.

The same regulations that have hitherto governed enlistments in this State, as to the persons empowered to enlist, the rules for mustering and for furnishing transportation and supplies, will apply in this case.

Any one desiring to enlist in either of these organizations may do so in any part of the State by making application to the District Provost Marshal, or any recruiting officer from the 2d Corps, no matter to which regiment said officers may belong.

I have come among you as a Pennsylvanian, for the purpose of endeavoring to aid you in stimulating enlistments.

As this is a matter of interest to all citizens of this State—its quota being still nearly 30,000 deficient, I earnestly call upon you all to assist by exerting the influence in your power in this important matter. To adequately reinforce our armies in the field is to insure that the war will not reach your homes, and will be the means of bringing it to a speedy and happy conclusion, and of saving the lives of many of our brave soldiers who would otherwise be lost, by the prolongation of the war and in indecisive battles.

It is only necessary to destroy the rebel armies now in the field to insure a speedy and permanent peace, let us all act with that fact in view; let it not be said that Pennsylvania which has already given so many of her citizens to this righteous cause, shall now, at the eleventh hour, be behind her sisters States in furnishing her quota of the men deemed necessary to end the rebellion. Some States have filled their quotas, others will do so; a little exertion on our part, will soon fill all the decimated regiments of the State and obviate the necessity of a draft.

Let it not be that those organizations which have won for themselves and their State so much honor, shall pass out of existence for the want of patriotism in the people. Unless these regiments are filled to the minimum strength they will soon cease to exist. It will be necessary to act quickly to insure success. Other States by having used greater exertions, and by the inducements of local bounties draw away your young men. By giving bounties at home, and stimulating the State pride you will secure to your regiments that portion of the male population whose circumstances readily permit them to take the field.

WINFIELD S. HANCOCK,
Maj. Gen. U. S. Vols.

NEGRO TROOPS IN DELAWARE.—We understand that the recruiting of negro troops in the lower part of this county is meeting with a decided success, and quite a number have volunteered. The colored men of Georgetown and vicinity are waiting anxiously for the recruiting officers, and wonder at their delay, as they are nervous to do service for their country. We have conversed with several on the subject, and find nearly all anxious to enlist—they say they will not wait for the draft.—Georgetown (Delaware) Union.

A LETTER from Danville, Ind., to the Indianapolis Journal, says that more trees were killed by the late cold snap in that vicinity than at any one time heretofore. Peach, pear, and the more tender varieties of trees are generally killed to the snow-level.—Apple trees do not show to what extend they are damaged.

GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS.—The Governor has appointed Hon. Wm. M. Meredith, Attorney General, and Hon. Eli Slifer, Secretary of the Commonwealth, for the ensuing term. The Secretary has appointed Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong as Deputy Secretary.

COPPERHEAD papers of the Express stamp do not seem to prosper in New York city During a trial in court it was brought out that the Express, which a year ago had an average circulation of 30,000, is now down to 9,000. It dose not deserve even the latter.

A BAD EGG.—When the Greek fire shell from GILLMORE'S batteries exploded in Charleston, a contraband, who witnessed the spectacle, jumped up and clapping his hands, exclaimed, "See dar! hell has laid an egg!"

End of the War—What is Doing and What Should be Done to Accomplish that Object

Those who are anxious for a speedy termination of the war by a final overthrow of the military power of the rebels, are naturally somewhat anxious for a resumption, on a grand scale of hostilities by our armies. Some persons cannot perceive that anything is being done toward the crushing out the rebellion unless they are almost daily regaled with accounts of sanguinary battles, in which thousands are wounded and slain This is a mistaken idea. We believe that the Government was never working more earnestly toward the consummation of the great task it has in hand, and that never before were our prospects so brilliant. The rebellion is not to be put down by the sword alone. The aid of famine and the discouragements consequent upon a reasonable belief that the cause of treason is hopeless, have been invoked in our behalf, and we are firmly convinced that these agents will have an influence scarcely second to that of campaigns and battles. These allies of good government are now vigorously at work, and though our armies rest inactive, while they proceed with their winter campaign, the spring will show that we have made decided progress in our great work, if we do not by that time finally triumph.

Some prominent European statesman has said that, all wars must be settled by diplomacy. The conflict in which we are engaged has been an exception to all others in some of its most prominent features so far, and in respect to its settlement it may very probably still retain its exceptional character. Certain it is that there will be no diplomatic compromise with traitors in arms. Those who will return to their allegiance have already been offered generous terms, and we believe that this will be the only compromise proposed, or that is necessary.

Meanwhile let those who complain that we are not expending lives enough this winter, reflect upon what we have said of other agents than the sword upon the difficulties of winter campaigns in some portions of the South, and upon what will probably be more potent with them than all other considerations—the draft. The thousands whom they would have slain and disabled by this headlong, senseless policy of "doing something" regardless of consequences, must be replaced. Are you who urge the Government to hurry our armies into battle prepare to take the places of those brave men so sacrificed? We fear that such considerations have never entered your minds.

We can indicate how persons who are impatient to see an end to this war, can materially assist in the accomplishment of that object and with less sacrifice of life and treasure than by any other method. Let them come forward and volunteer in such numbers that by spring our Government can put an overwhelming force into the field. We believe that if a million of men were to come forward "for the war" the effect would be to crush the rebellion with very little more fighting.

That is certainly a better, as it is a more effectual plan, than to urge on our heroic now in the field to slaughter; to require new levies which will barely keep up our present numbers, thus encouraging the rebels to persevere, and prolonging the war indefinitely. Let the rebellion be crushed overwhelmed speedily, but let it be done at the least possible expense to the nation of its diminishing treasure and its heroic blood.

☞ There are three circumstances in rebel history, the existence of which all accounts from secessia confirm these are the rapid decrease in the resources of the Confederacy, the intenser hostility of the leaders of the rebellion, to their own government, and the growing Union sentiments of the people. All these circumstances can be made, at no distant day, to contribute to the entire suppression of the rebellion, but we must have soldiers in sufficient number to aggravate the rebel destitution foment the unpopularity of Davis and his minions and encourage the spread of Union sentiment among the people of the Confederacy.

NINE MONTHS MEN TO BE DRAFTED.—The U. S. Senate has so amended the Enrollment Act, that none but such as are in the service, or have been in the service two years, and have been honorably discharged, are exempted from the operations of the draft. This throws all those who served in the nine months' regiments, into the classes liable to draft. They still have one advantage over other men, and but one, that is they get a bounty of $402 if they enlist, while others get only $302. No doubt many of them will "go in" Those who were drafted and served in 1862 will also be liable to draft.

☞ A Hilton Head letter of the 18th inst., says the expedition from that point is one of vast magnitude. As many of the vessels are of light draught, it is thought by some that it will go up the Savannah river; others expect a movemeat to the rear of Charleston; while others, still, believe that Mobile is to be its destination.—A large negroe force accompanies the expedition, which will be landed at various localities to gather in slaves.

☞ In regard to the resumption of active work by the Army of the Potomac respecting which sundry hints have been casting about recently, Gen. Meade, in his speech at Philadelphia last Tuesday, said: "We are making every effort to improve the present, and, as soon as the weather moderates and the season will allow, active operations will be commenced anew and in earnest."

Communication from Governor Curtin.

Gov. Curtin has presented the following communication to the State Senate. As it is a matter of interest to all our citizens, we publish it.

Gentlemen:—I feel it my duty to invite your attention to the necessity of prompt legislation on the subject of the payment of the interest which will fall due on February 1st. It is understood that the banks at the large commercial points in the State have so reduced their circulation that they can at any time redeem it in coin, and will no doubt do so if the act of 1862 is in force. This will leave few banks subject to that act, especially in the interior, whose circulation is large, and who cannot readily apportion the payment of the interest of the half year's interest would probably render them bankrupt, and would not procure the necessary coin. Going into more details than necessary in my annual message, I would observe that the interest on certain loans to a small amount less than $6,000,000) is by the provisions of the acts required to be paid in specie.

These are called the Five-Twenty Loan and the Coupon Loan, as they were created under the acts of April 10th, 1846, April 5th, and May 4th, 1852, and are [illegible]. The annual interest on these loans is more than $350,000. This has [illegible] to be paid in coin or its equivalent, so as not to show an inability to comply with even an obligation that might be considered doubtful. I call your attention to the fact, that the interest on the acts referred to of the State for payment of interest in coin, appears to demonstrate that the construction put by me on the extent of the obligation under the other loans is correct.

The loan under the last [illegible] acts form the great mass of our public debt, and amount to more than $32,000,000. The balance in the treasury on the 1st of December last was less than $2,200,000. To pay the interest on the 1st of February in coin will require more than $1,500,000, and on the 1st of March the sum to be paid to the banks, on their specie certificates under the act of January 30th, 1862, will, at the present price of gold, be more than $1,000,000. This will probably exhaust the funds of the commonwealth, and leave the treasury at the time without the means to meet the ordinary expenses of the government, to say nothing of the large extraordinary payments already directed by law. I do again most earnestly recommend immediate action on the subject.

PEACE OR STARVATION.—The editor of the Daily Progress, published at Raleigh, N. C, speaks right out in meeting "Peace, says he, can alone prevent starvation." Then, after showing that all the Southern masses are starving, the editor goes on thus: "The masses of the honest, hard working people have been deceived and misled long enough, and will not suffer and endure starvation. Peace they want and peace they have."

☞ The Wheeling (West Virginia) Intelligencer understands from gentlemen residing in Patriot, Ohio, that many of Bill Jackson's rebels are coming in and giving themselves up under the President's proclamation. Those who have not rendered themselves notorious as bushwhackers are simply placed under bonds for their good behavior.

☞ Lieut. Col. Calvin Sawtell, of Rochester confidence man, with a view of swindling Mr. Arstarchus Champion of that city, of the amount of $250,000 has been Sentenced to the Auburn State Prison for the term of three years.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.—It is decided thing—the people have decided it—that Abraham Lincoln shall be re-elected President and no power can prevent it. All over the country wherever the question of a candidate is agitated, "Honest Old Abe" sweeps all before him.

☞ An officer just escaped from the Libby Prison at Richmond reports that the government officials there are strongly disposed to avail themselves of Mr. Lincoln's amnesty and take the oath of allegiance to the United States government if they can get an opportunity, which is not probable at present.

☞ General Bragg's army in the West is said to be wholly demoralized and scattered through the country. The whole number of rebel troops west of the Mississippi is 34,000, of which 17,000 are cavalry, under Generals S. D. Lee and Ferguson.

☞ A man being asked by a young lady what phonography was, took out her pencil and wrote the following, telling her that was phonography:—"U. R. A. B. U. T. L. N."—You are a beauty, Ellen.

☞ At Fort Snelling, Iowa, the mercury was fifteen degrees below zero on the 2d instant. In Wisconsin, the mercury in the thermometer froze. Such intense cold had only been reached twice in that region since 1821.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

is the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all class es they are invaluable, adhering with certainty to periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Ladies who are pregnant should not be aware, without such a remedy. Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent to any part of the country by remitting to the Proprietor, or by Druggists generally.

OUR ARTILLERY IS

DR. WM. B. HURD'S DENTAL TREASURY

A COMPLETE SET OF REMEDIES FOR

PRESERVING THE TEETH

Purifying the Breath and Mouth

AND

...uring Toothache and Neuralgia.

CONTENTS.

Dr. Hurd's Celebrated MOUTH WASH, one bottle.
Dr. Hurd's Unequalled TOOTH POWDER, one box.
Dr. Hurd's Magic TOOTHACHE DROPS, one bottle.
Dr. Hurd's UNRIVALED NEURALGIA PLASTER.
Dr. Hurd's MANUAL on the Best Means of Preserving the Teeth, including Directions for the Proper Treatment of Children's Teeth.

Price, ONE DOLLAR, or SIX $5.

☞ The Dental Treasury makes a package eight inches by five, and is sent by express.

☞ Full directions for use is on each article.

The following articles we can send separately, by mail, viz:

The Treatise on Preserving the Teeth sent, post paid, on receipt of TWELVE CENTS, or four stamps.

The Neuralgia Plaster, for Neuralgia in the Face, Nervous Headache, and Earache, sent post paid, on receipt of Eighteen Cents, or six stamps.

The Neuralgia and Rheumatic Plaster (large size), for Pains in the Chest, Shoulders, Back, or any part of the body, sent post paid, on receipt of Thirty-seven cents.

Address,

WM. B. HURD, CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY, Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW.

...RE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that the truest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth! For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own, teeth save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they won them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing 37 cts. for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail; but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,

WM. B. HURD & CO.
Tribune Buildings, New York.

That remittances may be made with confidence, We B. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Farmers and Citizens Bank, Brooklyn; to Joy, Coe, & Co., New York; to P. T. Barnum, Esq., New York, etc.

GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH.

A Family and an Agricultural Journal,

DEVOTED TO

CHOICE LITERATURE,

INCLUDING

Poetry, Novelettes, Tales,

AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features, and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5,00; three copies, one year, $5,00; Five Copies, One Year, $8,00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15,00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28,00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2.50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers, at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months; a Club of ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

☞ No order will receive attention unless accomplished with the cash.

☞ Specimen numbers sent to applicants.

"VANITY FAIR."

"This is the first really clever comic and satirical journal we have had in America—and really clever it is. It is both sharp and good-tempered, and not afraid to say that its soul is its own—which shows that it has a soul. Our readers will be glad to know where they can find native fun that has something better in it than 'mere patois."—Atlantic Monthly.

"This paper is excellent. . . . Remarkable for originality."—N. Y. Traveller.

"VANITY FAIR is conducted by a vivacious, witty and intelligent corps of journalists."—Litchfield (Conn.) Enquirer.

"Will wield as potent an influence as that of the London Punch."—Boston Traveller.

"Whosoever finds himself laughing at the wit of VANITY FAIR, and does not return a quid pro quo, is fit for treason, and spoils."—N. Y. Crayon.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients, that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high, and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured, that no means will be spared of efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made official in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicias who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—

Compound Extract of Colocynth,
Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lipulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,
Citrate of Iron and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,
Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark agreeable; chalybeates,
Syrup of the Hypophosphites,
Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,
Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,
Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,
Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia; same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects,
Pyro-phosphate of Iron; soluble,

These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND!

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salve will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

To cannot put into the Knapsack of Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable nor more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH Therefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot or box.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE

BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take special care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so suddenly, as usually arise from trouble or annoyance, or from perspiration, or exertion, or from the stomach is unwholesome, these distressing symptoms action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved if you would be well. The Pills taking according to the simple instructions, will quickly restore a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these valuable Pills, and the Soldier is again able to acquire additional strength. Neither of these remedies be either confined or undressing.

It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons suppose that these cases increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and this removes all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISPOSITIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will assuage the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It requires a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor is liable there are no remedies so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Poor wounded and almost dying soldiers have had their wounds dressed in this Ointment, which would only provide himself of this Ointment, which should wound and smeared all around with a piece of linen from compressed with a handkerchief night and morning for a few days. This system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and every chest should be provided with this Remedies.

MARRIAGE.

IT'S loves and [illegible] sorrows and [illegible] hopes and fears, [illegible] 1000 [illegible] treatment and [illegible] of sexual weakness, [illegible] sexual debility, [illegible] action of the [illegible] organs must be relieved [illegible] The Pills taking according to the [illegible] structions, will quickly restore a [illegible] action in both liver and stomach, [illegible] natural consequence a clear head [illegible] petite.
